“ *Dear Karisha,
I was sorry to learn of your Dad's death. I remember when I met you at St. Francis Hospital, how fondly you spoke of your parents, and especially of your Dad, because of his illness. I talked to your Mom but you were not there. Just wanted you to know that my prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. You impressed me as a very caring, sensitive, and gracious lady and you were very kind and helpful to me. I cannot be there but you will be in my thoughts during this difficult time. I hope our paths will cross again. May God bless you and your family! (Please tell your uncle Bill "hello" for me!)*

“ I got to know Chuck as a close friend through Jeannie. Over the many years we saw each other at the beauty shop and formed a friendship. He was a special man who cared for everyone.

“ Chuck made everyone he met feel like he was so glad to see them. I remember him standing at the door greeting people as they came to church. He greeted each person with a smile and a kind word. His smile and greeting will be missed.

“ A truly fine man. As young men, we worked in two revival meetings together.
He worked hard at everything he ever did, and was commendable in every way a Christian man should be.

“ I have such wonderful, fond memories of the Foreman family through my friendship with Celia. Chuck was patient, kind, generous and fun when I visited with them as a child and later as a teen - wonderful qualities for the father of a best friend. Barbara, though I've never met you, you are so highly thought of by the community that I can imagine you have those same good qualities. I trust your memories will comfort you, Celia, Karisha, Chas and the entire extended family.

“ My parents, Ervie and Eva Barnett, were always fond of Chuck - having shared their Gentry heritage with him. As they all became residents of Siloam Springs, their friendship and bond continued. I don't believe we ever saw Chuck without a smile on his face and a kind word to share! And, we all enjoyed hearing Chuck sing. He loved to share God's love in song! Please know that each one of you will be in our prayers. May God grant you comfort and peace.
