“ My fondest memories are of Charlie as a little boy. He was always on the go, but we shared a very special bond. I can still see how excited both Kristi and Charlie were the first time I got them to pet a horse, or the pig at Big Ed's farm. They were sure little city kids. I have never met a person that was so full of love, as Charlie was. He just wanted to love and be loved. I was very Blessed to know him and call him family.

I will miss him, as I know all that really knew him will too.

May God hold you and your family in His arms in your time of such deep sorrow. Soon we will all see him again.

Love you all.

“ Our deepest, heart-felt sympathy, Jim, Ethel, and Kristi, on your loss. Know that Carolyn and I have you in our hearts, our thoughts, and our prayers, knowing that the God of all comfort will comfort and keep you in his perfect peace as you walk through this valley. Be comforted and heartened by the kind words of those who knew and loved Charlie for the man he was and the gifts he shared that brightened their lives.

“ My condolences to the family for your loss. Charlie was a good friend while he was living outside of Ft. Worth. A great guitar player and he could really play golf for someone who never had a lesson.

Rest in peace.

“Charlie sent me an invitation to play "Candy Crush" on Facebook a few years back. I always enjoyed all the times we would send energy boosters to each other. I recall so many times hoping he had sent me an extra life so I could play longer ... I always returned the favor. I was touched deeply as I watched and listened to him singing and playing his guitar on Facebook about how Good God has been to him.

My first thought was, "He has made his Peace." I, along with so many felt so proud of him. He touched a lot of lives, and hearts during his time on earth. I know the healing for those closest to him has begun. We are all on such a separate journey in this life. Each here to learn, be refined, make mistakes, and make sacrifices.

May we all exchange our hurts, regrets, guilt, or anything that is not of Our Heavenly Father for Peace and acceptance. My heart felt prayers for Ethel, Jim, Kristi and his precious daughter, Savannah -

Charlie was a very gifted young man in many ways. His passion for life, the intense love he had for his family will live on for a very long time. Celebrate his life and stay amazed at the tiny glimpses he left behind. Look deeply into Savannah's eyes and you'll find him there, and in one another as you come together as a family during this time of loss. Charlie would have wanted everyone to say something funny or recall a prank or two. That's the Charlie I knew.

Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Warmest Regards,
