

Charles Harlan Guthary

August 31, 1933 - June 13, 2013

Charles Harlan Guthary, born August 31, 1933, died June 13, 2013, at Circle of Life Hospice, Springdale, Arkansas. Born August 31, 1933, in Robinson, Arkansas, he was the oldest son born to Milford Guthary and Opal Clark Guthary. His parents moved to California when he was a baby and he was reared as a Californian. After he graduated from high school, he enlisted in the United States Air Force and remained until he retired in 1972. He enjoyed his many different aspects of service he learned while in the air Force. Upon Retirement, he moved to Westville, Oklahoma, to be near his parents who had moved there earlier. He was a member of the SSgt's Association and the American Legion. Charles was of the Methodist faith.

On March 19, 1976, he married Geneieve Underwood, who was a teacher in the Westville, Oklahoma School System, and he drove school bus for 18 years. He and Geneieve lived in the Westville area until August, 2011, when they moved into the Ravenwood Addition in Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

He was preceded in death by both his parents; three children, David, Richard, and Cathy Jo, who perished in a home fire on December 18, 1962.

He leaves to mourn his passing; his wife Geneieve, a daughter, Lori Hines and husband Ken of Grove, Oklahoma; two granddaughters, Kristen and Lauren Hines; two brothers, Shelby Guthary and wife Jane of Scottsdale, Arizona and Barry Guthary of Cambridge, Massachusetts; two nieces, Tammy Rasmussen and husband Rick of Maryland and Sherry Reeves and husband Ben of Alabama; a great niece Sydney Reeves of Alabama along with a host of friends and relatives.

In lieu of flowers, Charles would appreciate donations be made to Circle of Life Hospice, 901 Jones Road, Springdale, AR 72762.

Memorial services will be 1:00 p.m., Wednesday, June 19, 2013, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Doug Davis officiating.

Following the service, Charles will be laid to rest in the Yell Cemetery at Robinson, Arkansas. To sign the online guest book, visit www.wassonfuneralhome.com.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss of Mr Guthary. I still remember riding on his bus at Westville schools and seeing you behind on your bus and contrary to what you told my assistant, it was not me who made faces at you through the back window. :0) I was the good kid! God bless you !
