“ Your father was a wonderful man. He was always kind with his words and generous with his positive thoughts to others. I got to know Charles when Elaine was at Quail Ridge in the last years of her life. I admired Charles so much in seeing the loving and devoted care he gave Elaine. Charles was a gentleman in every sense of the word. He was blest to keep a good mind all through the years. I feel so fortunate to count him as a dear friend and one whom I will truly miss. In our visits he always expressed an abiding faith in the goodness of God and the love that he had for Elaine and his children and grandchildren. Just as Charles would often tell me that he was praying for me, my wife and family, so I pray God will bless and comfort you-his family- in your sorrow. --Larry Ellis.
