“ Debbi, Chuck, Kristy, Adam & extended families... We are all so sorry for the loss of this wonderful man. He gave his ALL to his wonderful wife, children & grandchildren. His wonderful laughter & voice will certainly be missed. You knew he was coming long before he ever entered the room. Words can never express how sorry we are. But know that our prayer now is for the remaining family. His love and laughter wishes you to move forward. I pray God's blessing & protection over each of you, that He will give you strength & courage for each day that lies ahead. We are only a phone call away if you need anything. GOD BLESS EACH OF YOU...

“ Debbie, Chuck, Adam and Kristy (and families), we were so shocked and saddened by the news of Charlies death. Let God's presence comfort you during this time and the days ahead. He will be your strength if you will lean on Him. You are fortunate that you have each other and your closeness will help get you through this difficult time. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Debbie & Family,

We are so sorry to hear about Charlie.

Bob enjoyed his time working with him. He was pleasant to be with and Bob considered him a friend. They had many good conversations.

We remember one time on a cold and very snowy night when Bob was late coming home from work. Charlie called to see if he had made it home, but he hadn't. Charlie encouraged Betty and offered to change shifts with Bob the next day, if it would be better for him, because of the slick roads. He always seemed to be concerned about people.

Betty enjoyed her conversations with Charlie over the phone, when she called to talk to Bob. He always asked her how she was doing.

We will miss him.

GOD BLESS & COMFORT ALL of YOU DURING THIS TIME. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

IN CHRISTIAN LOVE, Bob & Betty

“ Adam and Kristy,
Words are so ineffecient and seem so little at a time when you have lost someone you love. Know that loving thoughts and prayers are coming your family's way for comfort, peace, and understanding.
Love,
Kelle

“ Charlie always had a pleasant word when we met. I remember him as a teenager and a young man. I am saddened by his passing.
