“ I love Aunt Cheri and just can't believe she was ever ill let alone that she is gone now. I always want to remember her singing "There is power on the blood. Power power, wonder working power" and chewing her spearmint gum.

I dont have a bad memory of Aunt Cheri she has always been an angel in my eyes.

“ Just a couple of things I remember about Cheri. We really grew up together even though I was her aunt. She would share her toys when Mary didn't want to. When she and Raymond were married, my husband and I lived in the same apartment building that they did for a few months. If Cheri was around there was always laughter and joking. Even in the early stages when she was losing her memory she would joke around about it. As so often happens when we get older we go our separate ways but when we did get together those were good times. These past few years when she was unable to come to family gatherings she was definitely missed. I am so sorry that I never made it to visit while she was ill and that I will most likely miss her service. My love to her family, I know you will miss her.
