

Christine Camfield

September 7, 1916 - April 7, 2009

Christine Camfield, 93 year-old former resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died April 7, 2009, at Covenant Hospital, Plainview, Texas. Born September 7, 1915 in Stella, Missouri, she was the daughter of A.L. Fain and Della Mae Bowers Fain. She moved to Siloam Springs from Neosho, Missouri and was employed by Hunts Department Store in Siloam Springs. She moved to Amarillo, Texas after her retirement. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Siloam Springs. She was also a member of First Christian Church, Siloam Springs. Christine was preceded in death by her husband David Grant Camfield in 1991; and one son, David Lee Camfield in 1990.

Survivors include one daughter Helen Ruth Smith and husband James W. of Cooks Mills, Illinois; and five grandchildren. Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m., Saturday, April 11, 2009, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Visitation will be 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. Friday, April 10, 2009, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

CN

“ Dear family, this is late, but I just wanted to say how much I loved Chris. She & Dave and my mom & dad (Toy & Dorothy Hall) were friends and I have known her all my life.

I adored her and was so blessed to see her just before she died.

Please know I will be thinking of you all during your loss and know that I am sad for her loss, also.

Carolyn Hall Nuthman

Carolyn Nuthman - September 19, 2012 at 11:27 AM

PC

“ Meme was the best grandma in the world. We will always love her and miss her terribly.

Peter & Carolyn Camfield - September 19, 2012 at 11:27 AM