“ She was such a beautiful, gracious lady. Always willing to do anything that needed to be done. I remember her kind service in and around the church in Stilwell. She was always ready to help. She will be missed by so many people.

“ My beautiful aunt Shirley. As a little girl she was one of very few that would treat me with kindness, and make me feel special. On her lap I was comfy and loved. She was a cook, one of the best. She made the first homemade hamburger bun I ever ate and the last. She loved her kids. But said in Dec. She was ready to go be with my uncle Bob. You are home with him now. I can see them sitting on a bench up there looking down, smiling as Bobby and Edith are playing with their grand children. Until we meet again aunt Shirley, Rest in Peace. I love you

“ I will always remember eating breakfast with Christine and Bob and all the great food she made. Also, I will never forget how she would always make a huge roll just for me on Thanksgiving and Christmas.
