

Christy Lea Sutton

May 26, 1962 - April 8, 2024

Christy Lea Sutton, 61, passed away on April 8, 2024. She was born in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, on May 26, 1962, to Glen Dale Worthington and Wanda Lou Latimore.

Christy was a self-described “lover of travel, food, wine, reading, family, fellowship, and experience, and not always in that order.” As a military child, she grew up in places like Germany and Hawaii. This evolved into a true passion for visiting beautiful places and helping others do the same.

She enjoyed spending time in the kitchen preparing meals for those she loved, and the tradition of baking “Christmas cookies with Nana” was very special to her.

Christy was known for being fiercely loyal, a thoughtful gift-giver, and the kind of person who could find humor in any situation.

In true-to-her fashion, she passed on amidst the subtle backdrop of a total solar eclipse. Her final gift to us all, being an inspirational reminder of the beauty of transformation and that darkness does not last.

She is preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Sandi Truitt. She is survived by her loving husband, John Sutton of Springdale, AR; daughter, Lindsay Amos of Siloam Springs, AR; son, Connor Kilburn (Johannah) of Springdale, AR; brother, Rex Worthington (Judy) of Fayetteville, AR; and grandchildren, Nixon Davis, Ashlyn Kilburn, Kayne Smith, Aizlynn Kilburn, Nya Kilburn, and Rowan Kilburn.

A visitation will be held at Wasson Funeral Home on Saturday, April 20, 2024, from 10 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. The memorial service will follow at 11:00 a.m.

“ You raised us to be strong and never give up. You instilled the importance of staying true to your moral compass, integrity and respect. You're why I hold doors open for people, why I know how to cook, handle finances, turn any situation into a positive one through humor and the list goes on. I grew up watching you overcome any obstacle in your way. You were determined and fierce when it came to protecting us. You loved us so much and we know that. You adored all of your grandkids and they adored you. We love you so much and you're missed by more people than you'd ever imagine. You've touched so many lives and the world feels like it's missing something now that you're in the arms of our Father in Heaven. You've now heard, "Well done, my good and faithful servant". I'll also tell you, "Well done, mom. You've done everything you could to raise us well and we're thankful for every bit of it. Well done".

I love you, mom. I'm thankful to be your son.

What a lovely tribute to your mom, Connor. Christy was so proud of you and Lindsay and, as you said, she loved those grandchildren. I will miss her quick wit and sense of fun and I'll think of her every time I make or eat her "Cowboy Candy." What a wonderful friend she was. She will be missed.

I did not know Christy. I stumbled upon her obituary completely by accident but was moved by the the write up. She seems like a fun and magical person. Know that you will miss her everywhere. Please accept my sincerest sympathy.
