“ Oh Cindy Lou Lou, I don't even know where to begin..... You were my best friend. Even though there were so many miles between us, we were so close. We spoke for hours and hours a day, for years. You understood me and I understood you. You knew everything about me, all the good and all the bad and you never judged me, you were still my best friend and loved me. You were always there for me no matter what. You were the first person I spoke to every morning and the last person I spoke to every night. We would be talking on the phone while talking to each other on facebook and tweeting each other. The nights that I was home alone and hated it, you would stay on the phone with me all night. Never will I have a friend like you. I am so lost without you Cindy Lou Lou!!! I will miss talking with you, texting with you, facebooking with you, tweeting with you, kikking with you, instagramming with you, but most of all, I will miss you!!! I will miss our friendship that we had!! I will miss all our laughs.. You always made me smile, you brought so much joy to my life... I'm trying to find peace with your passing and it is very hard but I can say I have no regrets. I always said to you. "Cindy Lou Lou, I love you" You knew how much you meant to me and that I loved you dearly. I know that you are at peace now, I know that your up there with your dad. Cindy Lou Lou, we always said that if something happened to one of us, that we would wait for one another and I am holding you to your word. I want you to be one of the first people when I get there. I don't know when I coming but I expect to see you right away. Thank you so much for being such a wonderful friend to me. Thank you for always being there for me when I needed you. Thank you for all the laughs. Thank you for being a part of my life. I will hold you close to my heart until we meet again. I love you with all my heart.....
