“ Clara was a precious Woman of God I was privileged to know in Bible Study. She knew the Bible in a way I strive to know it, & she knew how to apply it to our lives. Thank you, Rhonda, for bringing her. I will never forget her.

“ Many days in the classroom with her as the teacher; probably why I like to read. Thinking of the family during this time; she is sitting at the right hand of the father enjoying the view.

“ *Charla, Earl, and Eddie, I have wonderful memories of living next door at the parsonage in Colcord. Your mother was a wonderful neighbor to a young mother with 2 little girls. She calmed me down when Kim stuck a million Cheerios up her little nose. (Well, maybe not a million) I could always depend on her for advice when I felt like my mother was so far away. And she taught Leonard and I both to make some pretty cool ceramics. I've thought of her and you all so many times through the years. I'm so sorry for your loss but lets all plan on meeting her at the Heaven's Gates! Love you always,

“ Oh how we take advantage of our lives. When I started yearning to learn what was in God's Word I was still able to take advantage of her knowledge. Luckily, she was still able to drive from Decatur to Colcord to teach Sunday School. I remember her stories about not letting uncommon things become common to us. How she rested the Bible on her chest during the night when praying over her children. Truly, she may have been the most influential teacher of my life and I try to pass on these lessons to students and long to have the knowledge about words and their origins and meanings. Love you Clara Jones and you know I love you too family!

“ The picture of Clara here is so appropriate. I imagine it's only a start to her reaction at heavens gate. I loved bible studies with her! She was so educated on the bible and the different translations. Her laugh and personality... will be missed. Love to all the family. Sherry (Owens) Bartlett.
