“ I Physically Opened The Good Book today 🙏 Praise Jesus (not the Bible App) and this is the First thing I see, Adison was born in Feb. The Only Picture. I miss my Mama so much every single day. It is comforting to know she's watching over her me and my family. I know she is so Proud of Adison! (and the rest of the gang she never got to meet) God called her home too soon. It's been 16 years 💕 Thank you for everything mama, until we see each other again 🙏

“ Mack and Ann, My prayers are with you and your families. I know it must be very hard, but celebrate Mrs.Kinzey's life and what a great mom . I just wanted to offer my condolences and let you know that you re in my heart and prayers. even though I havent seen either of you in a few years, I still remember the fun times from long ago. I am glad to see you are at home.

“ We can't begin to tell you how sad we are. Clara Ann had been such a good friend to us through the years. She was one of my first friends when I moved here at the beginning of the 7th grade, and I will always remember that. We have many fond memories including our trip to Colorado, and her wonderful laugh. We could always count on her for anything.
Our hearts go out to all of her family.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Clara's passing. We have been a part of each other's lives since we were little girls and my Grandma & Grandpa lived across the street from the McJunkin family. I got to know her better when we would visit when I would go vote in the Moseley area. What a pleasure knowing her. I'm sure you will all miss her sweet spirit as I will.

My deepest sympathy - Sandy

“ Dear Thelma & Velma,

Just heard yesterday about the passing of your sister, Clara Ann. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. I really was sorry to hear of her passing. Just too young. She was in my brother Russell's class and also my step-sister, Beth Johnson.

I think I remember seeing Clara several years ago when we had a family member in the Springdale hospital. It was good to have seen her. God be with you all and let the good memories give you and your families much comfort.

“ We are so sorry to hear about the passing of you mom. You are in our thoughts and prayers. The thing that helped me with the passing of our son John is that. God puts us on this earth for a mission and our loved ones has completed their mission and God has taken them back to His home. Where there is no more pain and suffering. You are in our prayers and always look to God. he is really the only answer.

“ We were so saddened to hear of your loss. Our memories of Clara are so dear to us. When I worked with her at the gas station she tried to fix me up with the perfect man, it took us three years to find out she was right! She was a true and wonderful friend and a warm and gentle soul. Take peace is knowing she is resting in Jesus' loving grace. Our thoughts and prayers are with you now.

“ I've known Clara Ann as long as I can remember. We were probably 5 when we lived across the street from each other on N.Wright St. We were among the fortunate 11 girlfriends who went to Colorado together and spent a glorious time in Oct. of 2004. I will always cherish those memories. She was helping our class with our upcoming 50th reunion. She was so much fun to be around and will be missed a great deal!

“ Ann, Tracy and Family:
So sorry for your loss. Just know that people are thinking of and praying for you. Knowing this just seems to help a little. Lean on your family and friends. This is what got me thru the last couple of weeks with the passing of my dad. If you need to talk please don't hesitate to call me.

Love you guys.
