“ Always enjoyed Clifton coming into the store to visit while the boys were at Marchants arena. I was working when Cala walked in to see her mother and it was love at first site .We bought a lot of bulls when Rufus told us we needed to raise the price and cut a lot of bulls. Then resold them a few weeks later. Enjoyed knowing this family so much.

“ He was a slow-talking, soft-spoken story teller. You had to listen closely for the punch line. He was a beautiful soul, a beloved brother-in-law, whose gentle wit will be missed.
