

Clinton Delbert Cox

May 18, 1956 - August 29, 2025

Clinton Delbert Cox was born on May 18, 1956, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. He spent his life between Siloam Springs and Tipton, Missouri, where he built a life filled with laughter, love, and hustle.

Clint was a natural-born hustler in the best sense. Whether it was pool, poker, chess, or any other game he came across, he would find a way to win and teach you how to lose with grace. He passed down more than just strategy and skill. He passed down stories, songs, and memories that will live on for generations. Every kid who came through his door knew the words to Joy to the World by Three Dog Night and The Cover of the Rolling Stone by Dr. Hook, thanks to Clint's patience and love for music.

He shared 25 years with his beloved wife, Penny, from 1984 until her passing in 2009. He is survived by their five children: Jeannie and her husband Jason of Fordland, MO, Bo and his wife Jamie of West Siloam Springs, OK, Stephanie and her husband Ben of Shenandoah, IA, Brian and his wife Kelly of Tipton, MO, and Colt and his wife Joy of Bella Vista, AR. He is also survived by numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren who carry pieces of his legacy.

He was preceded in death by his siblings Lynetta, Terry, Randy, Becky, and Theresa, and by his mother, Juanita.

More than anything, Clint loved spending time with his family. His presence, quick with a joke, always ready for a game, and full of life, made every gathering more exciting.

He will be missed more than words can say, but his tall tales and larger-than-life personality will live on through his loved ones.

A visitation will be held at Wasson Funeral Home on Saturday, September 6, 2025, from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. The funeral service will follow the visitation, beginning at 2:00 p.m. Burial will take place at Bell Cemetery.
