“ Clyde was a fantastic person and neighbor. He would always kid me about the height of the weeds in our lawn or encourage me to do better job clearing the snow out of the driveway. He eventually did allow me to talk him out of climbing up ladders to clean his gutters. He would reward me for helping by sometimes turning down the volume on the ball games on tv so June and I could have a conversation. He had a wonderful sense of humor and will always bring to mind great memories. We are sorry for your loss and trust that you shall see each other again. Lots of love to June and the family from Scott, Iris and Emiliano.
