“ To Brittany and Vicki and Family, I can not imagine the pain you are going through over losing Cody. I did not have the chance to get to know him, but I know that he was a good Son. At night when I pray for you all, I also pray for God to put his loving arms around Cody and keep him safe. I know that he is keeping Cody cradled in his love. God Bless you all.

“ I just wanted the family to know they are in my prayers. Loosing loved ones is never easy, but the young ones are the worst.

May God continue to hold you all in his arms and give you comfort and His peace that passes all understanding.

Sincerely,

“ To Cody Farmers Parents, family and friends.

I was online tonight and seen Cody's video. I was looking for my sisters best best who past away Christmas Day. Anyway this picture of Cody and the video of his life in pictures got to me. I didnt know Cody never met him and have no idea how he past away. I just wanted all of you to know how sorry I am that he is no longer with you. I wish you all the very best. Again I am so so sorry for your loss. My God be with all of you. Chris “Cody I know that you are gone, but deep down in my heart is where you will always live. You always had a place with us when times got hard in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Honestly it's hard to know that your gone. I have to keep going back to this website page and see your name in black and white. I know that right now you would want all of us in my family, and in your family as well to be strong through these times. I still have flashbacks about all of the fun that me, and you and todd all had together. And the very last time that you came to my house in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. I miss you so much and I can't quit thinking about you. You were my companion in everything. To his family we are sending flowers. I tryed to get the money together to make it to the darkest day.. I just don't have it. I would give the world to be their. I am sorry about the tragedy that you are having in your family right now, and I know how much it hurts. I know that Cody is going to a better place, but even tho all of his pain, and anger is gone all of ours lingers. In time we will all get stronger and learn how to deal with this. He is going to live on in all of our hearts. I love all of you and if you need anything please call..

“ Cody, was a great kid, young man. I can remember the fun we had in school. He had lots of energy, courage and a warm heart. Though his life was rough, he always maintained a good spirit. He was always truthful in his "dealings" with us and I always considered him an intelligent young man just seeking his destiny. Now in his final resting place may he be at Peace. Our hearts go out to all of Cody's friends, we will all miss him.

“ We are so saddened to hear of the passing of your son. You probably won't recognize our names, but you, Vicki, have made an impact on those around you. Your smile, compassion and professionalism have often times impacted our lives. We wanted you to know that we all travel the same road and that we share your sorrows. We know that you will continue to be a blessing to us in so many ways.
