“ My heart hurts so much for you, Michelle, James and Ashley. I know Cody is at total and complete peace now, so I'm praying for strength and God's indescribable peace to be with you, especially, as well as all of those who are hurting so much for one gone way too soon. Love and prayers will get all of you through this.

“ Cody was such a sweet, polite young man. He helped us out so much with our Girl Scout Troop. Cody gathered up his friends one night to help us deliver baskets of food to the elderly people in Siloam. He helped us unload hundreds of boxes of cookies on several occasions. He was always so humble. We lost a good man on earth, but God gained a great man in heaven. Until we meet again Cody....rest in peace.

“ My condolences to Michele, James, Ashley & the rest of the family. Hold tight to memories for comfort, lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in thoughts and prayers.

“ I saw Cody a few weeks ago at the river. Fishing, swimming & cracking jokes. He said hey Ashley how you been sweetie & gave me a huge hug! He told me how proud he was of me for stepping up to the plate for my babygirl and changing my old life style ways. he was an amazing guy with a huge heart & one handsome Dude! Heaven is sweeter with him there. God knew Cody's heart & one day as hard as all of this is on his family friends and acquaintances we will one day meet him on the other side. I cannot imagine the pain and everything ur asking yourself just know that he is in a better place no sadness or suffering watching down over us ;) god bless this family and may your heavy hearts be eased by The Lord. Rip Cody .. <3 always Ashley
