“ Teresa, John, and Brittany,
Our thoughts and prayers have been with you during this long period of grief. I ached every step of the last few months knowing how difficult this was for all of you and not having anything I could do to soften the pain. I hope your hearts can heal now that he is safe and comfortable with God now.

God Bless you,
Kathy

“ Ms. Teresa Beasley,

Just wanted to say how sorry I am to hear about your father. I want to say Thank you for letting me visit your family this past summer. It is such a pleasure of meeting your father, mother and some of your other family. Your father seemed to be a very good but funny man. I wish you all the Best!

“ We want you to know that we loved and appreciated Conley. He always had a smile and an encouraging word. He will be missed. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers. Conley was always ready to help with the ushering ministry at the church. He took that duty very seriously. Be blessed and know we will see him again in heaven.
