

Danny B. Cauthron

December 5, 1951 - March 17, 2025

Dan was called on his next journey on Monday, March 17, 2025, at his home in West Siloam Springs, OK. He was born on December 5, 1951, in Seminole, OK, to Hal and Fay Cauthron.

Dan was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Hal Jr.; son, Dennis Daniel; brother-in-law, Jay Provost; and mother-in-law, Se Sun Provost.

Dan married Jeanne (Provost) Cauthron on March 5, 1983, after hiring her to work in his restaurant, Taco Rio, in Choctaw, OK. Jeanne always liked to joke that Dan would not give her a raise, so she married him. They spent 42 years on their journey. They crossed over many mountains together and came out stronger.

Dan is survived by his loving wife, Jeanne; daughter, Christy; grandchildren, Jacklyn, Terra, Andrew, and Careli; great-grandchildren, Kairi and Joss; twin sisters, Amy and Cynthia; nieces, Taylor, Lauren, Susan, Linda, and Melissa; nephew, Evertte; sisters-in-law, Nancy Cauthron and Michelle Miller; and father-in-law, Retired Major Ken Provost.

Dan wore many hats in life. He spent time clerking at 7/11, was a tire tech at Good Year, held a membership in the Carpenter's Union, was Garden Center manager for Lowe's, and was the grower/manager for several commercial greenhouses. For his final "job" he followed his heart, working at Christian Addicts and Alcoholics in Recovery (CAAIR) where he impacted many lives and was very grateful for the opportunity.

Dan always had an offbeat sense of humor and a sense of style that was his alone. In his honor, mismatched colorful socks, tie dye, and Hawaiian shirts are acceptable apparel.

His visitation will be from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm on Monday, March 24, 2025, at Wasson Funeral Home Chapel, 441 Hwy 412 W., Siloam Springs, AR., with the memorial service following at 6:00 pm. To sign the online guestbook, please visit: www.wassonfuneralhome.com “ Dan was truly a godsend for hundreds of men who were lost in addiction. Never judgemental, but brutally honest. He will be missed.

“ Dan was an amazing soul. When I was at CAAIR he taught me that there was nothing wrong with how I believed, and that was something that had a huge impact on my recovery. i know he walks with the Creator now.

“ Dan always brought Jeanne lunch in the sweetest way. He walked in quietly, sat it down and turned to go. He always shared a smile with the girls in the office and sometimes got to steal a kiss if his love wasn't busy. Rest in peace Dan, I know you will be missed. Prayers for Jeanne and all who loved him.

Oh Danny, what can I say...I was raised around you and I know Amy and I pest to you, at times...always in love!
Remember the time you ans Amy and I were there and you had a "friend " stand out the patio door to scare us? We'll, it worked! You went outside to take care of the boogie man! We were grown before you told us the truth! I guess we may have been too pesky! Love you cuz...see you when I get there! Love and respect always!
Love you Jeanne! Prayers and good vibes your way!
