

David Eugene 'Gene' Carroll

October 13, 1934 - June 26, 2026

David E. Carroll 91, passed away on June 26, 2026. He was born in Kansas, Oklahoma, on October 13, 1934 to Dave and Agnus (McAlester) Carroll. He married the love of his life, Bobbie Ruth Sisk, on July 21, 1956 in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Gene lived most of his life in Kansas but moved around to different states with wife Bobbie before they settled back in Kansas, Oklahoma. He proudly owned and operated Carroll's Service Station in Kansas, Oklahoma, for 35 years. For much of that time, it was Carroll's Apco Station.

Gene loved living in Kansas and was involved in numerous activities. He was the first person to serve as the city's mayor. He was a founding member of the Kansas Volunteer Fire Department. He most proudly served on the Kansas School Board.

When not at the station, he enjoyed fishing and playing golf with family members and longtime friends.

More than anything, he was most proud to be a grandfather. His time with his three grandchildren were some of he and Bobbie's most cherished memories.

Gene was preceded in death by his parents, Dave and Agnus, his wife, Bobbie Carroll, and his sister, Connie Duncan. He is survived by his daughter Paula Pomeroy (Dan) of Tulsa, OK, son, Brian Carroll (Jennifer) of Tulsa, OK; sister Bertha Jo Pair of Grove, Oklahoma, brother Daryl Carroll (Deana) of Kansas, Oklahoma, grandchildren, Ellen Kate Brill (Wade) of Saint Paul, MN, Connor Carroll of Tulsa, OK, and Brooke Carroll of Tulsa, OK; as well as, many nieces and nephews.

The funeral service, officiated by Rev. Terry Wofford and Rev. John Crowley, will be held at First Baptist Church in Kansas, Oklahoma, at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 1. Interment will follow at Kansas Cemetery.
