

David "Dave" Wayne Bellomy

July 23, 1979 - September 21, 2021

DAVE WAYNE BELLOMY, JR., of Siloam Springs, AR, finished the race and won the prize on September 21, 2021 in Springdale, AR. He was 42 years old.

Born in Houston, Texas on July 23, 1979, Dave was the oldest of the two Bellomy boys. Arguably an "Aggie" from birth, he attended and graduated from Texas A&M University, where he would meet and fall in love with his wife of 19 years, Allison Bellomy. Together, they would build a life for their beautiful family of six in Siloam Springs, AR.

Dave is survived by his wife, Allison Smith Bellomy of Siloam Springs, AR; four beautiful children, Jackson, Lauren, Peter, and Megan, all of the home; parents, David and Kathleen Bellomy of Livingston, TX; brother, Dwayne and his wife Christy Bellomy of Livingston, TX; and two nephews, Ethan Bellomy of Houston, TX and Tyler Bellomy of Livingston, TX. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Wallace and Avis Bellomy; and grandparents, Bud and Edith Shivers.

Those who had the privilege of knowing Dave surely knew the treasure he was. He was hilarious beyond comparison, never missing a moment to make others (and himself) laugh. And his laugh was nothing short of contagious. He was absolutely exuberant about life. His love for the Lord overflowed into a passion for people, and you could see that in everything he did.

Dave was a member of Sager Creek Community Church for 15 years; a body of believers that has become like family to the Bellomy's. He referred to himself as the "minister of announcements," although the church insisted he was actually an elder. In addition to sharing the occasional Sunday morning message, Dave would be the first to share with others when they were in need. He truly exemplified servant leadership.

From technology to terminology, Dave had a strong knowledge of the world around him. He was passionate about his work, but just as passionate about empowering others to do and be their best. He lived life to the fullest and the "fun-est," but he was serious about the things that really mattered.

Dave loved the Lord with all his heart, mind, soul, and strength, and strived to always be in "His will." His wife Allison would gladly tell you that Jesus was his first love; a quality that drew her to him (and Jesus) more and more every day. He loved his wife and children like Christ loved the Church, and he invested all of himself in them. He was a gatherer of people and a light bearer for the Lord. He was anxious to listen, learn, and grow. He was an excellent teacher and a man of wisdom that far exceeded his age. One was better off for having known him . . . because if you really got to know Dave, you got to know the character of Christ a little better, too.

Midst this great loss, we take comfort in six little words that have bridged the gap from earth to eternity for our friend, brother, husband, and father: "Well done, good and faithful servant." (Matthew 25:23)

Visitation will be from 6:00-8:00 P.M. at Sager Creek Community Church, Siloam Springs, on Friday, September 24th. A private family burial will take place later at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs AR. In honor of Dave's heart for missions, we ask that memorial gifts be designated for the Sager Creek Community Church Missions fund, where it will be used to further the saving message of Christ for the World.

“ Allison, May the Lord comfort you and your family at this time. We are thankful that Dave has been healed and is in heaven with Jesus, but we share your sorrow that he is no longer with us on earth. You and Dave were an important part of our college experience through ministry at the BSM and we are grateful for the time we shared there and the wonderful reunion we had with you not long ago. We have been praying for your family and will continue to lift you up to our Good God whose loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting. We have made a gift to Sager Creek in Dave's honor. Love, Mike and Karissa Pennington

“ Allison you and those beautiful kids are so loved. I'll never forget how encouraging You and Dave were in my darkest hours. We know there are few words to order comfort right now except this is not our real home. Dave is in his forever home waiting for his precious family to see what he can finally see. The face of our Lord and Savior. As you grieve just know how much I love extended family always.

“ My wife and I had the honor of knowing Dave through our job and I would say we both have many fond memories of working with him. He was always welcoming to me whenever I had a question and was always patient and kind (and incredibly thorough) as he walked me through understanding the answers. He was always generous with his time and willing to go above and beyond for us, even outside of work related things. I can honestly say that we are better people for having known Dave and are blessed to have experienced his light in the world. Our deepest sympathies and condolences to his beautiful family...we will continue to be praying for you all.

“ I have several strong memories of Dave. I first met him at his wedding to my cousin, Allison. My family's impression of him was that he had a great personality- extraverted, agreeable, warm, personable and enthusiastic. It was obvious how much he loved Allison and that love was sustained throughout their 19 year marriage. They were true partners. Another encounter we had was when he came to Louisville while he was in his MBA program. He and three of his classmates were competing in an Entrepreneur competition. I attended and got to see their presentation which was well done. He and I got to talk in-between sessions, and again I was struck by his enthusiasm. I could see his desire to grow and learn so that he could have a positive impact on the world. I watched from afar and a few times in person as he worked for different companies, engaged in several entrepreneurial ventures and engaged in coaching and engaging with his precious children. He laid a strong foundation for them. His loss is profound for Allison, who lost her best friend, for the children, who lost their father and for all the members of their tight knit community. Farewell dear David. We are so sorry the Covid virus took your life too soon. May everyone who grieves your loss get the vaccine or a booster shot, mask up, and physically distance while still remaining connected through prayer, outdoor gatherings or while masked.

*Much love,
Anita (cousin), Michael, Robert of Louisville, KY and Ben of Cambridge, MA*

“ How I'll miss Dave. Our whole Church Family will miss him greatly~!!! Everything said about Dave in his Obituary was so true of him, and this one statement mentioned jumped out at me because I recognized that same loving heart he had to know Christ in a deeper genuine way... QUOTE: "He was anxious to listen, learn, and grow." I recognized that same quality in Dave early on. He was a true biblical BEREAN (as in Acts 17:11). Ooooh, to realize he's now WITH JESUS and he will be reunited with his loved ones in the future!!! To God be the glory~!!!

“ You do not know me but I met Dave earlier in 2021 as i was needing some guttering work completed to my house. I was impressed with Dave to the point I recommended my son to him as a potential employee. Landon had agreed to work with Dave and was so eager to start. Dave and I spoke often as we acquired the proper items for Landon to work with Dave. I was eager for Dave to work with Landon as Landon developed a sales career. Dave was to be a mentor to Landon as a Christian businessman with strong integrity and character. The business world is much poorer due to the loss of Dave and heaven is a richer place.

When Dave was here I learned he had a technology background which became a mutual interest as I worked in healthcare technology for years

I could tell he was a man of high standards and character, that is why I was eager for Landon to join him at work
