“ Remembering my nephew as a real stinker that loved to tease me. You were a difficult child but you had a good heart. May God bless your soul.

“ To know Dave was to love him.
I have had a lot of laughs with Dave.
One time him and I was moving rocks to a RC event I was doing inside the old furniture store, that was by the casino. On one our trips, the fire extinguisher fell and went off in the cab. We had just pulled on to a dirt road when it happened. Good thing, He hit the E brake and we both baled out on the gravel, either one of us could breathe for a minute, but we laughed so hard once we could.
If there's anything I can do to help. Please let me know.
