“ Dear Susan,
Sandra and I are truly sorry. We both enjoyed you and David's company. I as a salesman started calling on David in 1977. He accepted me for what I was a "Rookie Salesman" and helped me grow in my profession. I have never forgot the advice and wisdom always shared with me. I now as senior in the field try to help my juniors grow in their profession. I will never forget David or the times we all shared together.
Our best to you and your entire family.

Our Best Regards,
Les

“ To the Jackson Family, we offer our deepest sympathy for the loss of a husband, father, and grandfather. Mr. Jackson was one of my first employers when he gave me a summer job at Jet Stream. I still remember him greeting me with a soft handshake and a gentle smile. Mrs. Jackson was one of my favorite teachers and I still think of her often. May you find comfort in our thoughts and prayers, and know that he is at peace with God.

“ Saying I'm sorry seems so shallow at this moment. I did not know Mr. Jackson, but it was obvious what a wonderful man he was by knowing Mrs. Jackson and the kids. Please know that you are all in our prayers as you face these difficult days.

“ I was sorry to hear the news of David's death. He was a good person. I met David when I was looking for a job in 1999. I had sent out a lot of resumes with no response, pretty discouraging. Travis Snow told me they had an opening and I called and went to visit with David. Since I was from the Mississippi Delta and had farmed for 14 years we talked about farming and he gave me a chance as Purchasing Manager which he had occupied for years.

This was a big break for me and something I really needed since I had 3 children in High School and ready to go to college. I always called him Mr. Jackson because I had so much respect for him. Even later I think in 2004 or 2005 when he came to visit, I saw a much greater person who was going through personal struggles that still had the capacity to reach out and encourage others.

I know that he will be greatly missed by all,

“ David was such a pleasure to work with. He had so much energy and always had a smile and good attitude in any situation. He was crazy about his grandkids! He only had his 2 granddaughters at the time I worked with him and they are about my daughters ages. He enjoyed sharing stories of them with me. I thought about David often after I quit my job, especially as I found out he was ill. I will miss him and his family will be in my prayers.

“ Dear Jackson family,
I recently found out about your loss and want to extend my deepest sympathies and pray that you find strength in the Lord to help you through this time. This is a time to celebrate David's life rather than mourn his death.
Your family was a great inspiration to me growing up and hope that if there is anything I could ever do for you, I would.
