“ I've known Debi since before my daughter Rachael was born who is now 40yrs old. The memory that stands out the most is the time we stood in line that went around the ticket building twice in downtown Tulsa ... we camped out so we could get good seats to see Elvis Presley at the Oral Roberts maybe center. We got the tickets ... but Debi got in trouble with her dad Jim and she couldn't go... so I took my sister instead. We did alot of crazy things that teenage girls do and had alot of fun... but sometimes got into trouble. She'll always be in heart. It was nice to find her on Facebook many years later and reunite. RIP Miss Debi. XOXO till we meet again.

“ Mommy,
I can't believe your gone... I love and miss you so very much. The selfish side of me hurts so bad and is so angry that you had to leave me, but I know that your no longer in pain and that you are n a better place. I have my very own guardian angel now. I love you and miss you til the day after forever!
