“ I’m so sorry for your loss. Deborah was such a kind person and helped me a lot my first 2 years of teaching at Southside. She always had encouraging words for me.

“ I knew Deb for just a few short years at Southside and Allen. During those times, Deb was such a good friend --she was always kind, thoughtful and caring not only to me, but to all the children's lives that she touched. Deb was a sparkle of sunshine, a precious woman. She will forever be in my thoughts. My deepest condolences, Bob and family, you are in my prayers during this difficult time.
