“ I met all of you kiddos when your folks lived with Loretta at and Jim and Tony in Mayflower and I met your Aunt Wanda your mother was a really good cook her and Loretta both. I’ve tried calling your mom several times since I moved back to Kansas but her had been changed or disconnected. I probably won’t be there on the 9th but you all will be in my prayers. Your mom would get angry at David for getting into trouble all the time. Did he finally grow up?!! lol!! I would love to give each of you a big hug and tell you momma is with your dad again

“ I will miss her sweet hugs, the smile that lit up her entire face, and her infectious laughter. I never left her that I didn’t feel much happier than when I arrived. Best neighbor ever, hands down. So blessed and grateful to have called her my friend. 🌹 ☐ 🙏
