“ I first met Denise soon after we moved to Siloam Springs. We both had stores downtown. We had fun times going to the Dallas Market. Never a dull moment and she was such an awesome storyteller. My son Matthew would call her Menise and she loved to hear him say when his birthday was. She would say, "Matthew, when is your birthday?" He would say, "April two-two". Although our paths and interests distanced us for a time, when we saw each other we could always pick up where we left off! Until we meet again precious friend!!
