“ Russ joins me in telling you of our deep sorrow when we learned of your Denita's promotion--sorrow because we have walked the path of losing our only daughter and know what a hole that leaves in your lives. Yet, there is a quiet joy in knowing she is in the presence of her Lord and Savior. Your great faith is to be commended. Remember, weeping lasts for a night but joy comes in the morning! You will find His grace is sufficient for the difficult days ahead. Our prayers for you will continue. In His love, Louise Bonacker

“ Dear Hensley family,

My heart breaks to imagine the pain you may be feeling. Please know that we also sorrow with you and rejoice that Denita is no longer in pain. And we KNOW beyond a shadow of a doubt that Denita is with her beloved Savior!

Continued love and prayers,
Joan Platter

“ I know she will be missed very much, but she DID live her life to go to Heaven. She is in no pain or suffering, now. Isn't that a great thing? Our prayers are with you & your families.

“ Denita was a very special Lady. She was a wonderful Friend. I'm so glad we visited with her Friday night at the Hospital. We had pray with Denita & Fran at her beside. She very lightly squeezed my hand.

Bob & Fran, I'm here if you need anything. I'm so thankful that Lois could be here with you at this sorrowful time for your family. She is such a Blessing.

Your kindness and caring mean so much to me. Love and Prayers to your special Family.

“ Family members,
God has been so good to me to allow me to know Denita, Deni Rae, my sister in Christ, for nearly 15 years. In the last few years she has been a great friend to me and my wife Cindy. Denita, with the help of "HER GIRLS" got me involved with making Jewellery. It was kind of funny to have the Girls call my wife and ask if they could "BEAD" with me. I will truly miss my sister and know that she has been healed.
