“ I'm so sorry for your lose. He was one of the sweetest guys I've ever known. I always enjoyed taking care of him at the hospital just as if he was my own family since he and my dad were so close. He was always apologizing and I would have to tell him to stop that because he had nothing to apologize about. I will truly miss him and wish that I could of visited more with him when he was feeling better and at home. Thank you for sharing his kindness and gentle character with us all.
