“ Brother Don I will never forget you. You were always a wonderful sweet caring person in my eyes. I remember every Sunday morning I was so excited when you'd be there and I thought it was always cool that you were Christ Temple Church's Candy man. You will be greatly missed. Now you can play your fiddle for the Angels and dance again with your beautiful wife. I'm so sorry to hear about your passing and will never forget you. Godspeed my friend love you and miss you.

“ I am so sorry for all of our loss. My thoughts and prayers are with the family and all those that loved him. He was loved by so many and will be forever remembered. So many happy memories be it him being ornery at the shop or playing his fiddle at church. His smile has always been infectious and even now in remembering it puts a smile on my face.

*Sorry to hear about your loss. Your dad was a fine man. We worked together on different things, and he was always doing something new in the machine shop. He was able to keep our old cranes and trucks going. He was a friend of our family for years. He will be sorely missed.
