“ So sorry about Uncle Elmo. I remember all of the good times when we were all together. You have all been on my mind lately, and I was going to write you a letter and send you a picture of the family. After I had a hard fall, I didn't get around to doing anything. Have been trying to get well. Our love, prayers, and thoughts are with all of you. Wish we could have been there for you. When we all live so far apart it is so hard to see each other. But that still doesn't keep us from loving all of you.

“ I am deeply saddened for the loss of my Uncle Elmo (Uncle Boo as I called him when younger). He was a great person and I loved him very much. I was just thinking of him very much on December 7, Pearl Harbor Day, as he was there on that historic day. My sympathy goes out to my Aunt Mary, Cousin Don and his family.

I know he is in the arms of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and also in the presence of all his loved ones who were waiting on the other side in Paradise.

We are praying for you to be comforted in this time of sorrow.
