“ We are so sorry for your loss. We appologize for not making it to the funeral we had plans that we could not change. We will miss her grecios love that she always expressed each time we saw Donna. She had such a smile that would put you in a good mood. We look forward to seeing her when we all get to Heaven. I want you to know we are and will continue to pray for your family. You all are in our thoughts frequently even though we are attending another church we still love you all and care for you all deeply.
