“ Darrell, Vicky and Robbin,
We are so sorry to hear about Donna. She was a wonderful, Godly woman who was a great example for me (and so many others). I will always remember her sense of humor and her care and concern for others. She was passionate about her service to God and her fellow man. She gave so much to so many.
We will be praying for you all during this time, that Christ will enfold you in His arms and comfort you with great memories.
God bless,
