“ I am very sad to learn of Dorina's passing. She was a wonderful friend and example of a Christian Lady. I worked with her six years in a insurance office at Tahlequah. She taught me many things. I was 19 when I first met Dorina and now I am 49. I have wonderful memories of one of the best friends a person could every have. She truly loved her God, her family and her friends. I know I am a better person because of my friend, Dorina.
