

Doris Ann "Annie" Garrett

August 6, 1948 - February 3, 2025

Doris Ann "Annie" Garrett, 76, passed away peacefully on February 3, 2025. She was born in Gravette, Arkansas, on August 6, 1948, to Earnest Homer Duncan and Jessie (Leary) Duncan.

Doris married the love of her life, Larry, on March 8, 1968. They spent 56 wonderful years together.

Doris was an avid fly fisherman and angler. She loved to spend time camping and trout fishing, especially anywhere near the mountains. Doris was also a huge fan of watching horse races at Oaklawn in Hot Springs, and listening to rock music, particularly Pink Floyd.

Doris was funny, clever, feisty, and strong-willed. She could always see the truth in any situation and seemed to always know how to tackle any problem. Doris was a leader, a quality she taught to her sons. But most of all, Doris was fiercely loyal to her family. She loved her family and made sure that each person felt loved and cared for. She was an amazing wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, whose memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

She is preceded in death by her parents, brother, Earnest Harold Duncan, and sister, Frances Stafford.

She is survived by her loving husband, Larry Garrett of Siloam Springs, AR; sons, Lawton Garrett and wife Amy of Fayetteville, AR, and Grant Garrett and partner Jeri Jett of Siloam Springs, AR; brother, Leroy Duncan and wife Pam of Summers, AR; grandchildren, Paizley Garrett, Adia Rowan and husband

Luke, Greyson Garrett, and Hudson Garrett; “third son,” Ryan Glenn; and many nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held at Wasson Funeral Home on Monday, February 10, 2025, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. A graveside service will be held at Coffelt Cemetery on Tuesday, February 11, 2025, at 11:00 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite charity, in her name.

“ The Splendor Of Love

*Oh! To have all of the things for pleasure in life
And to have love enough to fill the lusting eye
Is really not such a great wish come true
As loving another—heart for heart—before you die*

*The longed-for day will finally come, someday
When true love's light comes shining through
Your lonely days of searching for love will end
And all of your new days will truly be new*

*That cherished love will present itself
And will care for you only for who you are
The glitter of riches will pale in the night
For it will be you alone who is the star*

*Each new sun will bring an old memory to mind
Of some wonderful beauty from your past
And the beautiful sunsets you will then see
Will assure your heart that that beauty will last*

*True love will know what's in your heart
Even if you forget how the story should be told
For love's story never depends on memory
But rather on inner beauty told by the ages old.*

*And when your story has finally been written
And approved by the great God up above
That story will be told greater than stories of old
If you believe God believes in the splendor of love.*

“ Larry and I were best friends growing up. Where you saw one you saw the other. We played in bands together and played gospel music as well. We also served in the National Guard together. When Larry and Doris Ann were dating we would often double date. Later after Larry proposed to her he asked me to be his best man at the wedding. I felt honored to do it. Doris Ann was such a beautiful lady inside and out. She will surely be missed. Condolences to my brother Larry and the Garrett family. Ron and Peggy Ruckman.
