“ As you know, I will miss Doris very much. because I loved her so much. She was such a beautiful person..I can't imaging ANYONE not loving her. She was a quiet, but opinionated person. She also concerned herself with the "little" things...like buying some small rings for fixing the ties for my draperies in the living room. The rings weren't made for that purpose, but when she saw them, she thought they would look nice and they do. She planted flowers in my yard...and when Jerry would come over to mow my yard, she would just be "cutting away" with the weed eater. And, no matter what was needed, not just for me, but I know others, too, that benefited because of love shown by both Jerry and Doris...because they always did everything together...it was like getting "two for the price of one"...except there was no price.. Jerry and Doris were good examples of "faith that works". They didn't have to tell anyone what they believed because they LIVED IT!! I don't know how many miles that they put on their car just to take me to hospital and doctor appointments...I don't know how many hours that they waited in waiting rooms for me during my appointments...but they did it....they helped me paint my kitchen and laundry room.. I introduced them to Pioneer Pizza's vegetarian sandwiches...and one time we ate them in the front yard under the shade trees. I will never forget that and SO MUCH MORE. But I also know that they have helped a LOT of other people besides me, which is why it is so hard to let go of someone like Doris...so to Jerry, Teresa, and dear sweet Dora, who has known her longer than any of the rest of us, I am so so sorry about your loss, BUT her story isn't finished yet.....it is to "be continued" at a later time and it is my hope that all of her family members , friends, and anyone reading this , that you will be able to be "there" when her life..her GLORIOUS life will continue.

Teresa, Jerry and all the family. We are so sorry for your loss. I always enjoyed visiting with Jerry when I went to see my mom at the nursing home. Teresa, our mothers passed away just a month apart. We can sympathize together. I know you will miss her. We look forward to seeing them again with new bodies. That will be a wonderful time. May God be with you at this time.
