

Douglas Baugus

January 24, 1956 - December 10, 2010

Douglas Odell Baugus, 54 year-old resident of Gentry, Arkansas, died December 10, 2010 at the Siloam Springs Memorial Hospital. Born January 24, 1956 in Marked Tree, Arkansas, he was the son of William Henry Baugus and Lucille George Baugus. Douglas married Deborah Perkins, May 24, 1999, in Gentry, Arkansas. Douglas was an egg processor for the Cargill Hatchery. He was preceded in death by his parents, and one sister, Ethel Faye Edwards of Manilla, Arkansas. Survivors include his wife, Deborah of the home; one daughter, Amanda; one son, Douglas Baugus Jr. of Leachville, Arkansas; five sisters, Mary Sue Lee and husband William of Manilla, Arkansas, Linda Hancock and husband Bill of Manilla, Arkansas, Bertha Copeland and husband Bobby of Osceola, Arkansas, Joann Baugus of Manilla, Arkansas, and Cindy Childress of Gentry, Arkansas; numerous grandchildren. Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, December 15, 2010 at the Jesus Name Church of Cherokee City, Arkansas with Brother Steve Paden officiating. Burial will follow at Dickson Cemetery near Cherokee City. Visitation will be 6:00 – 8:00 p.m., Monday, December 13, 2010 at the Wasson Funeral Home in Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

“ Douglas Baugus

---

Elizabeth Carroll - September 19, 2012 at 11:25 AM