“ We were blessed to be in a family where love abounded. As the oldest cousin I watched Doug grow up to become a wonderful Christian man. I treasured the holidays and other times we spent together. Doug was always full of life and will be missed very much. So thankful that our parents gave us a strong spiritual heritage and we will meet again in “The Sweet By and By”. Marilyn Jones Rogers

“ My deepest sympathy for the family in your time of loss. I can only imagine how much you will miss Doug. He loved his family dearly. I have many fond memories of our years at Franklin. He was a great guy, smart, hard working and pleasant to be around. He was always there to work on issues with a positive spirit. Rest now my friend.
