“ To the family of Doug Webb: I had the fortune of going to both HS & College with Doug. If I learned anything about Doug during those years was that he was a true renaissance man. Not only a gifted athlete but an amazing academic. I know this by having the luck of taking a couple classes with him in college. It was there that I understood the magnitude of how well rounded he was. I learned quickly he was the one who set the bar after test grades came back. With that said my favorite aspect of Doug was he was always kind to everyone and quick to offer a smile. But the best part I remember he made my dear friend Jen so very happy.

My heart weeps for Jen, the boys, and the extended Webb, Krein and Denicola families. My prayer is you find solace in God's promises. How grateful I am knowing this isn't the end of Doug's story and I look forward to seeing him once again reunited with all those who love and adore him.

My deepest condolences to each of you and know Jen you are loved beyond measure.

“I met Doug when we worked together at Healthsouth Rehab hospital. He always showed compassion and kindness to his patients. I remember a specific situation. He had a patient who was an avid reader prior to her hospitalization, but had been unable to read following her illness due to her visual acuity. One day after work, Doug went out and bought her some large print books. A simple act of kindness that meant so much to that patient. I pray for Doug's family during this difficult time; may you find comfort in the beautiful life he lived.

“ Doug,

I am broken! When I got the news from Cheryl, I froze. It crushed me! I can't believe it still.

I remember meeting you at Ozark. Our connection was basketball. I always knew if we were on the same team, the other team had no chance. You were awesome on the court, but an even better person. I am sorry that we didn't continue to nurture that friendship beyond college. But, I am thankful for our time together playing and traveling with the team. Those were great times.

Jennifer,

I am so so sorry. I can't imagine your pain. I remember when you and Doug started dating. He was smitten by you. I know that you loved and adored him too. I am praying you and your family. God will wrap his arms around you and the boys. He will give you the peace and strength you need. He's got you!

Danny and Gina,

Not Doug! I am so sorry. I can't believe this is real. I am praying with you and for you!

Mrs. Webb,

I am thankful to you and Mr. Webb for sharing Doug with us. He has a ton of friends from school that love him. I have spoken with several. They are all in shock. I know that you are proud of the man he became, and I know Mr. Webb would be also. I will continue to pray for you and your family. The God I know, will see you through this.

To all,

If you don't know how good of a ball player Doug was, I'll share a short story. I shared his passing with another friend. He went on to tell me about a time when Doug challenged him and two other guys to a game of 21. Doug told them that neither of them would score. He beat them 21 to 0 to 0 to 0. Neither scored a basket. Remember, when he had the ball, there are three defenders! He was that good!

HE WAS EVEN A BETTER PERSON!

May God Bless you all,

Jesse Vaughn and family.

“ Doug,
The news of your passing has taken many by surprise. As I absorb the shock of it, I think about knowing you. We met at Camp Yorktown Bay during teen camp guessing it was 1982 or 1983 and we also went to Ozark Adventist Academy together, same Class of 1988. We didn't stay in touch after graduation, typical of most high school friends... But when I heard the news that you were gone, I cried. Cried for the loss of you, for your wife, your sons, your mom and your brothers, and for all of those that ever knew you. Because the Doug I knew, was always a fun, kind hearted, genuine, and very caring person that would chat with almost anyone and make them feel heard. I don't know much about you since high school and for that I am sorry for not keeping a better touch. The impact of your loss for your family and friends is definitely significant.
My husband, Michael and I are sending our deepest sympathy and condolences to all of your family and friends. We pray, and ask the Lord to send his angels to surround your family, keeping them close and comforting them during this most difficult time. May you rest in peace, my brother.
