“ *Washington Family,
We are so sorry to hear about Doyle. You have all been the best neighbors anyone could ask for. We will miss this wonderful person and his laughter. I like to think him and Uncle Delmar are sitting up in heaven in 2 lawn chairs telling funny stories. Maybe they'll even let Carter in on them. If we can do anything just let us know.*

“ Sarah & family, I was so sorry to hear of Doyle's passing. My family and I have known Doyle and his family all of my life, He was friends with my Daddy and Uncles and his family were always pillars of the community. I attended High School with you and when you married Doyle you also became a member of the community. Doyle will be missed greatly and my prayers will be with you and your family as you go on, it is a struggle but God will give you strength and will have a loving arm around you. Pauline
