

Earl Akin

July 12, 1923 - September 13, 2012

Earl Franklin Akin, 89, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died September 13, 2012, at Siloam Springs Nursing and Rehab Center. He was born July 12, 1923, in Branch, Arkansas. Earl was a Navy Veteran of World War II. He was a mechanic for Radiator Shop Owners. He was a life member of the Siloam Springs VFW Post 1674, and was of the Methodist faith.

Survivors include one great niece, Larissa Akin.

Graveside services will be 10:00 am, Tuesday, September 18, 2012 at Fayetteville National Cemetery, Fayetteville, Arkansas, with Pastor Tim Estes officiating.

Tribute Wall

CE

“ Earl Akin

Chris Ellis - September 13, 2012 at 12:00 AM

WB

“ Have a safe journey on your final ETS.

William E Beard - September 13, 2012 at 12:00 AM

FL

“ I have only been friends with Earl for a couple of years. Got acquainted with him through the VFW and also through Pleasant Springs Assisted Living facility where I would visit with a cousin of mine. He was always anxious for company and had great stories to tell.

RIP Earl and 'Thank You Sir' for your service to this great country..You will be missed

Frank Lee - September 13, 2012 at 12:00 AM

SI

“ Earl was a good neighbor. I mowed his yard and he gave me candy for it. He always wanted to give something for mowing. He with the Lord.

Sissy - September 13, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MC

Earl was a very good friend to my father, Woodrow Gann, after my father died Earl would drive to our house & get the newspaper from the yard & put it on the porch every morning for my mother because he knew she was unable to get it from the yard. He did this for 6 years until my mother died, we knew that he was still being a good friend to Dad even after death. I just heard about his passing today and I am sad to hear but I know that he is in heaven. Marie Gann Carte

Marie Gann Carte - September 23, 2012 at 02:24 PM