

Earl Dwaine Fisher

March 16, 1932 - January 12, 2013

Earl Dwaine Fisher, 80, of Westville, Oklahoma went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, January 12, 2013. He was born March 16, 1932, west of Watts, Oklahoma, to Earl L. and Mary Miller Fisher. He enjoyed operating heavy equipment and served his country in the Army. He was employed by Adair County Road Department. He operated the Cherokee Nation Landfill for seven years. Dwaine collected “treasures” all his life. He loved kids, dogs, and old cars. He married Ramona McCoy on January 15, 1954, in Stilwell, Oklahoma.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother Clifford; one sister, Kate Rebozzi; and an infant sister, Ruby Marie.

He is survived by his wife Ramona of the home; one son Scott Fisher of the home; one daughter Jill Teague and husband Roger of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; one brother, Gene Fisher and the late Frances Fisher of Peabody, Massachusetts; five sisters Laura Ross and the late J.W. Ross, of Timpson, Texas, Irene Pittman and the late Virgil Pittman of West Siloam Springs, Oklahoma, Betty Saltenberger and her husband Roy of Joplin, Missouri, Loraine Setliff and her husband Roy of Atopka, Florida and Fern Weeks of Grove, Oklahoma; two grandchildren, Holly Kleber and husband Kevin of Siloam Springs, and Kyle Teague and girlfriend Destiney Trimble, of Siloam Springs; one great grandson Kasen Kleber; and one brother, Gene Fisher of Peabody, Massachusetts; and many, many friends. Dwaine never met a stranger!

No services are planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

PH

“ I join the vast host of friends who knew, admired, and respected Dwaine. I really was a legend in his own time. Someone should compile a book of the stories surrounding him and his many activities in Adair County. Rest in peace Droop.

Phyllis Hagan - January 29, 2013 at 02:51 PM