“ I was very saddened to hear of the loss of your aunt. I visited her often while she was in Siloam Springs Nursing and Rehab and when she was in intensive care at the hospital. I send you my condolences and my prayers. She was a very sweet and nice person and I will miss her very much. We attended Eastgate Church of Christ together and I knew of her struggles. I often told her what a beautiful singing voice she had. Now she is singing in Heaven in the presence of God.
