“ Today is September 7, 2008. I had to do a project on where i was from (decaturn arkansas) and i decided to look on the NWA newspaper site, where i came across the article that my loving grandmother passed away a year ago. I was not aware nor notified of this, as i have tried getting ahold of my dad, Terry for a little over 2 years now. I love the Guthrie family very much even though I havent seen everybody in years, and I only wish i could of told my grandmother goodbye. I love you grandma and you were the sweetest person i ever met.

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. I'm sure your family is going through a difficult time.

The Bible's hope of a resurrection has comforted me during times of loss. Jesus said on John 5:28,29:"the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Knowing that God is not the cause of death is also comforting. Hebrews 2:14 says: "he (Jesus) will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil."

When Lazarus died, Jesus grieved. John 11:35 says: "Jesus gave way to tears." So if Jesus wept even though he was about to resurrect Lazarus, then surely he feels for those of us who grieve!

Once again, I'm sorry about your loss. Even though these scriptures will not erase your pain, hopefully they will help you to cope.

*Very Sincerely,
Scott Smith*

“ I will miss you so much. Everyone will. I know you have been waiting so long to go and be with Granddad and now you are. I can picture the two of you...happy once again. One day I will be there with you too. I love you guys. My memories of both of you will live with me forever and close to my heart.
