“ Ed was one of my closest friends. We grew a tight bond over the last 20 years. We rarely went a week without speaking with each other. The news of his passing hit me hard and it still doesn't feel real. I'm going to miss our fishing trips and just sitting around the backyard talking about life and fishing. He loved his family and friends and spoke about them often. I'm going to miss my buddy but will always remember the great times we shared..... RIP my brother

“ I have know Ed since I was a kid his in-laws lives across the street from me and so I grew up with his boys. I had not seen him in years then he walked into the radio station I worked at and we said hey I know you and laughed and have been friends ever since I use to help him with commercials on his Big Ed outdoors show. He was always so friendly and funny and had a smile on his face and always so good natured. He will be missed

“ Many experiences shared with my cousin Ed that enriched our childhood...picking off groundhogs at his parents farm, Ed, cousin Rick and I, in our 17 year old hippie days, trying to visit our Uncle Tom ...we had long hair and beards and when we knocked on the door, Uncle Tom didn't recognize us, was scared of us, and wouldn't let us in to visit....we had a great laugh about that....Ed had a good heart and soul and will miss him ❤️
