

Edward Koch

January 4, 1965 - November 20, 2005

Edward Koch, 40 year-old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died November 20, 2005, at Quail Ridge Living Center, West Siloam Springs, Oklahoma. Born January 4, 1965 in Belleville, Illinois, he was the son of William Koch and Rose Marie Atherton Koch. He was a truck driver and lived in the Siloam Springs area since 2001. Survivors include five brothers, Harold Koch of Missouri, John Koch of Little Rock, Arkansas, Fred Koch of Belleville, Illinois, Tom Koch of Westville, Oklahoma, Henry Koch of Little Rock, Illinois, and Robert Koch of Piasa, Illinois; and one sister, Mildred Ann Morris of Slidell, Illinois. Private graveside memorial services will be at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Rev. Jim Beavers officiating.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ Edward Koch

Deene Kiddy - September 19, 2012 at 01:08 PM

GC

“ I only got to meet with Ed a couple of times. I found him to be intelligent and very much his own person. I especially respected his desire to do as much for himself as he could. We were all glad we got to know him and his family and friends. Blessings for you all - Grace

Grace Culpepper - September 19, 2012 at 01:08 PM

LB

“ Ed was a real fighter and a very sweet man. We are all glad we got to know him. I am glad I got to meet some of his friends and family.

Take care - Lisa

Lisa Bourke - September 19, 2012 at 01:08 PM

JG

“ Ed was a sweet man and friend. My thoughts are with his family. He will be missed tremendously.

Jennifer Graham - September 19, 2012 at 01:08 PM