“ My heart is breaking as I sit here today to send you my thoughts and prayers. You couldn't of asked for a better man than Ed was. I never will forget all the kind things he said to me during the times we had break together. Everytime Ed would see me out he always had a warm hug to give too me. I never seen a more braver man than Ed when he lost his wife and the way he continued on with a smile on his face even though you knew his heart was breaking. Then God gave him you Glenda and both your lifes were complete. He was always there to offer a smile and kind word to not just anyone but to everyone. Glenda my heart is breaking for you as well. I pray God be with you and give you the strength you need at this very difficult time. I can't imagaine what you are going through right now. But I know God will help you through this time. Joseph and MaKayla both send their love too you and hugs as well. Let me know if there is anything I can do for you at anytime. Heaven must be a little brighter today for God has definetly called a shining star home to be with him.

“ What a wonderful man! Ed was always "The gentleman". He always had a smile and an encouraging word for anyone that was having a problem or concern of any kind. Our dear friend, Ed, will be sorely missed by both of us. Our prayers are with his family, especially our friend, Glenda.
