“ Love to all of you. Such a loss, and I'm so sorry. You are a family that knows how to embrace each moment and give all the love you can while you can. I want to be like that.

“ I was blessed to share a whole school year with her as her kindergarten teacher. That girl would come in everyday (most days with a smile) and keep up with the rest of the kiddos learning, playing and making friends! When we would partner up, there were ALWAYS friends trying to get to her first! She is loved and will be missed! Praying for your family!

“ Two memories that I'll share.. I remember so many hours of helping El Drea throw those sticky hands against the wall that she got as a reward in her preschool class. The second is the first time I ran into her and Dan shopping at Walmart after she got her electric wheelchair. (It made my heart so happy that she could control it and go wherever she wanted. It gave her so much independence.) She was following Dan to the registers but I guess on the way she saw an endcap of toys. She proceeded to change her route and go check them out! Even though that probably wasn't the way she should have handled it...I sent up a prayer of thanks that God gave her a way to help herself!
Praying for your family!
