“ Liz was a sweetheart. I will miss her sweet smile that she always had. It didn't matter if she was having a bad day or not she always smiled. I will always cherish the memories of Liz and Cotton coming over to Mom's house to visit. I always told her I was going to kiss Cotton, and she always said " go ahead but he's mine". But of course she always smiled and went on with the act, wanting Cotton to be included.I Love them both dearly as if they were my own kin. My Deepest Sympathy to Cotton and the family.

“ The deepest sympathy to the family. Liz was a very sweet lady that I have known since I was a very small child. She was a very good friend to my mother all these years, since Todd and Elsie Langham were her neighbors. She will truly be missed by not only her family , but also the Burnett family as well.
