“ I've known Ella Faye since i was a little girl. I met her because of Aunt Thelma and Uncle Oscar. I used to go to Oscars mamas house and she would be there. She was a nice lady. She sometimes would scare me when she would raise her voice but as i got older i realized her bark was worse than her bite. She will be missed. May God bless you all in your time of sorrow. She is one more angel in heaven

“ Sometime near 1960, my mother, Eva Barnett, was a Sunday School teacher of Ella Faye's in the First Baptist Church of Siloam Springs. I remember Mother being very fond of Ella Faye, and she enjoyed having her in the class. Ella Faye always spoke to me, and this meant a great deal to me to have an 'upper classman' acknowledge my presence! I still remember her sweet and friendly smile. May God bless her family and comfort you at this time. You are in our prayers.
